What is GDPR?

This is a new law coming into force on 25 May 2018 which addresses what we can and cannot do with your personal data.

One of the requirements of GDPR is that we write to tell you how we process your personal data.

What information we hold about you?

We currently hold the following personal data for you:

- |                    |                                 |
|--------------------|---------------------------------|
| - Full name        | - Address                       |
| - Date of birth    | - Emergency contact information |
| - Boat information | - Crew information              |

The purposes and legal basis for processing your personal data is solely for the use of the Three Rivers Race administration, providing up to date race information to you in line with your current communication preferences.

We will always hold your data securely. We will not issue or share your personal data with any third party.

How long will we keep your data?

Under current legislation we must hold the information until at least five years have passed following the submission of our annual accounts. We may hold the data for a longer period where required to by law.

Your rights over your data

If you wish to obtain a copy of your personal data, please contact us via the link on our website: www.3RR.uk. You also have the right to ask for inaccuracies in your data to be corrected.

Can I withdraw my 'consent'?

You have the right to withdraw your consent to our holding your data at any time. To withdraw your consent please contact us via the link on our website: www.3RR.uk.

Complaints

If you believe that we have not completed with any of our obligations under data protection laws in the UK, please let us know immediately.
